The Capital Area Coalition on Homelessness invites you to their fall 2007 Training Day. The event is free of charge, and designed for frontline shelter workers, case managers, any other human service workers/supervisors that serve the homeless population.

Date: Tuesday, November 13, 2007
 Time: 10am – 12noon (Early session at 8:30 for new workers)
 Location: YWCA of Greater Harrisburg Chapel
 1101 Market Street, Harrisburg, 17103

Schedule (all workers are invited to both sessions below, however, the early session at 8:30 may not be necessary for some workers, so feel free to come to both, or just the later session):

10am-12noon Guest Speaker with discussion
Julia Tilley, LCSW, MSW, Cornerstone Counseling
 Topic: "Working With and Providing Accountability to Manipulative People"

8:30-9:30am Special Orientation Session for New Workers
George Payne, Vice President of Programs, YWCA of Greater Harrisburg
 Topic: "Homeless System Orientation"
 An introduction to the service delivery system in Dauphin County, including an overview of the various emergency/transitional housing programs and other supportive services and how they can be accessed. This session is specifically designed to provide new frontline or case management staff with an understanding of the resources available to their clients.
 Supervisors note: CACH plans to offer this orientation every six months from now on as a training resource to local agencies for new staff.

In addition to the fine topics presented above, there is another reason to come: free donuts!

Please RSVP by 4pm on Friday, November 9 so we can have an accurate count for materials and donuts. Mail the tear off portion below to BHA, Attn: Steve Schwartz, 219 Hummel Street, Harrisburg, PA 17104. You can also fax it to (717) 233-5489 or e-mail your RSVP details to bha@bha-pa.org.
